PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Frequently I am asked my favorite honor as President of our Congregation. I had a truthful and standard answer. I so enjoy sitting on the bimah for Shabbat services as it provides me with a unique perspective on our service. It is my joy to watch the Bar and Bat Mitzvah families as the service unfolds. The look in the mothers' eyes as they mouth the Torah, Haftarah and D'Var Torah as their children recite before family, friends and our Shabbat regulars. The fathers' eyes tearing up as Rabbi shares stories about grandparents who have passed. Its a wonderful honor and opportunity.

However, after a series of recent meetings I have had a change of heart. Now, my favorite honor is the opportunity I have had to meet with our community leaders. My title as President has afforded me access to the most impressive people in South Jersey. Sometimes I look around the room and just cannot believe that I have been included. Always, I try to listen and to learn. I am impressed with the participants' resumes - fantastically successful yes - devoted to our community and active in many, many philanthropic organizations. They have a knowledge base built from what they have learned in business and industry and supplemented by what they have learned through their various philanthropic endeavors and they know so much and share so much. As my term continues I have become more comfortable meeting with these leaders, I have learned so much and hope to someday be a mentor to future leadership, just as these leaders have been so generous with their time mentoring me.

Shortly after this article was written, the horrible plane accident which took the lives of seven people including our Congregants Lewis Katz and Susan Asbell occurred. May their memories serve as a blessing. Below is a copy of my notes which I used as the basis for my remarks, which I shared from the bimah the Shabbat after the incident as a tribute to our Rabbi and Hazzan for all they did to help our families, our Congregation and our community:

Last Shabbat I sat with our Hazzan and discussed Sophia Borowsky's beautiful Bat Mitzvah and the upcoming Henry Herskowitz funeral and the cycle of life. Then, just as Shabbat ended Beth El's world changed.

We cannot imagine how difficult it is to meet with family members who have just lost a loved one in order to craft a story to be told and shared. It is so much more difficult when the person who has passed is a loved one to you as well. Rabbi, you could have spent weeks or even months writing eulogies for Lewis Katz and Susan Asbell. Instead, you had two action-packed days filled with meetings, taking notes on tear-stained papers, writing, editing and most importantly listening.

On Tuesday morning at 10:00AM the Lewis and Marjorie Katz Main Sanctuary was open for what was to be a small private funeral. Hazzan chanted and sang with beauty and meaning and Rabbi you eulogized your beloved Lewis before 500 people. A former governor, a United States Senator, two sports team owners, a sports team president and so many more attended. This was a small, private funeral. This was Lewis Katz.

Then the two of you raced across town for Susan's funeral at Platt's. The service was called for 2:00PM and doors were to open at 12:30PM. By 12:45PM the line was the longest line anyone had ever seen an hour and fifteen minutes before a funeral was to begin. A touching tribute to Susan. When the service started, Hazzan chanted and sang with beauty and meaning and Rabbi, you eulogized your beloved Susan in front of a packed house.

In addition, Temple University provided you with housing and you accepted its invitation to spend Wednesday on the dais for Lewis' memorial service, sharing your insights before a broader audience and yes, making Bill Cosby laugh.

Both of your commitments to excellence and commitments to our congregation have allowed you to do extraordinary work and you have made your Congregants proud. Thank you.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Rabbi Noah Arnov Goodbye to Beth El

In June, I attended a day-long seminar at the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York for rabbis joining new congregations. Among the many thought-provoking questions asked was, "What is ending for you as a part of this transition?" I want to share my thoughts on this question with you - and they are from me as a rabbi (still) of Beth El, separate and apart from considerations of how my family will be transitioning.

First, there is the Beth El family, the Beth El community. When I come into the chapel any given weekday morning, or stand on the bima in the Sanctuary on a Shabbat morning, or on the temporary bima in the Social Hall on the high holidays, I love scanning the room and seeing all of you there. Over the past four years, I have gotten to know so many of you, shared joy and sorrow with you intimately, chatted over bagels or kugel, beers, or no food at all. I've seen your children grow, I've seen us all age, I've seen wonderful people join the community, and beloved members leave the community. To be able to look around a room at Beth El and know virtually everyone in it is an amazing gift and privilege. There's an unbelievable feeling of relationship, of relatedness, of connectedness, to having shared conversations and moments of holiness with so many people. And, while I know that I will forge new relationships and get to know my new community, I still have great sadness at leaving all of you. I cannot be a rabbi without, in a certain sense, loving every congregant I meet and get to know. So I feel a profound sense of loss at leaving this community of people whom I love and care about.

The other thing that for me is ending is, in a word, my apprenticeship. I came to Beth El fresh out of rabbinical school. I knew the basics of being a rabbi, after six years of school and several internships. But, it was here at Beth El that I truly learned to be a rabbi. I had two main groups of teachers over the past four years. The first is all of you. Your suggestions, always given with compassion and thoughtfulness, your reactions, your presence have all taught me so much about being a rabbi, and about humanity.

And, Rabbi Krupnick, Hazzan Pomerantz-Boro and Rabbi Furman have been my teachers as well. It doesn't matter what I say in a sermon - Rabbi Furman always gives me a good handshake, a smile and a kind word when he comes back up on the bima. They say people don't remember what you say or do, but how you make them feel. There are many things Rabbi Furman says, and does that I will remember, but I'll always remember that he made me feel like I was a rabbi, despite being in the presence of someone with more than fifty years in the rabbinate.

Hazzan Pomerantz-Boro has the most incredible instincts of any clergy-person in the business. As we all have experienced, she, like no other, can use music and ritual to capture and amplify a moment. She and I have shared so many conversations about

LIFE AND LEGACY PROGRAM

Beth El was recently given the opportunity to participate in a charitable Endowment initiative under the auspices of the Jewish Community Foundation. The program was funded by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation in order to foster an awareness of the importance of Endowments to the future of any charitable or religious organization. The Grinspoon Foundation offered an unrestrictive $5,000 grant, during each of the first two (2) years of the program, to any organization meeting certain criteria.

The Grinspoon Foundation challenged all of the participating organizations – and almost every Jewish organization in our area is participating – to obtain at least eighteen (18) Endowment commitments during each of the first two (2) years of the program. Our committee is pleased to advise you that Beth El was the first of the organizations involved to meet and surpass the Grinspoon Foundation challenge. We have obtained approximately twenty-two (22) Endowment commitment letters, and have secured the first of the $5,000 grants available less than half way through the first year of the program.

Please remember Beth El when you do your Estate Planning. Our Committee will be happy to discuss various options with you.

All of us thank those who have helped to ensure Beth El's future.

Rabbi Noah Arnow Goodbye to Beth El

everything related to synagogue life and lore, and she has advised and steered and encouraged me so much. As I prepare to lead my congregation, I know I'll be asking myself regularly, what would Hazzan Pomerantz-Boro be singing for this moment?

And Rabbi Krupnick? I have been your apprentice. I've watched you do virtually everything you do as a rabbi here, participated, helped, and absorbed, I hope. You have challenged me in ways that have been at times uncomfortable, but always necessary, and I, and the shul have benefited. I've watched you at board meetings and funerals, giving sermons, speaking to bat mitzvah girls and confirmation classes. I remember when I first met you, we were talking about sermons, and you said that you believed your words, spoken as a rabbi, could have an impact on people, could make a difference in their lives. I was skeptical then, but I am a believer now. You have been a gracious, supportive and encouraging mentor to me whose example I will carry with me my entire rabbinate and my entire life. Thank you.

As an apprentice, the final decisions about so many things here at Beth El, were not mine. There is a certain degree of carefreeness that one can have when s/he is not the person ultimately responsible. As my apprenticeship ends, so does that ability to be carefree. But, the only reason I am prepared to take on the responsibility of my own congregation now is because all of you have been my teachers, and all I have learned at Beth El.

I will be in Cherry Hill through the end of July and would love to see you before I leave. After that please be in touch via e-mail and Facebook.

Lehitraot—farewell!
Rabbi Noah Arnow

I hope to see you soon.

Yoel Weiss - President

Sisterhood

As I complete my second year of Presidency of Beth El Sisterhood, I realize how lucky I am to have had such an opportunity to meet and work with the women of Beth El. Sisterhood women work, volunteer, plan, coordinate, implement and oversee so many projects, both in the synagogue and in our community and our efforts have been noted. I am ecstatic to say that we will be receiving an emerald Jewel in the Crown award at this year's International Women's League Convention in July, to recognize the outstanding work our Sisterhood has done over the last two years in education, programming, Torah Fund and Social Action. Congratulations to all the women who participated in Sisterhood events over the past two years as this award is for all of us. And, a big congratulations to our member, Ilene Rubin, who will be installed as an International Vice President at convention as well.

I do still have a few people to thank for some events this past year. First, I want to thank Cathy Backal for running our Game/Mahjong night in May. We had about 20 women, both new players and veterans, come out and learn how to play mahjong and we got a few great games going. Second, I want to thank Renee Kessler for coordinating all of our Chesed cooking events this past year. This is a huge undertaking, as several thousand meals are cooked throughout the year, ensuring that meals are always available for our congregants in need, as well as other members of the community. Third, I want to thank Michele Miron and Laurie Kolmins for coordinating our monthly Social Action collections and ensuring they were delivered to the appropriate organizations. Fourth, I want to thank Linda Lazarow and all of the gift shop volunteers who keep the gift shop running 52 weeks a year. Fifth, I want to thank our weekly Wednesday morning minyan discussion leaders, Rabbi Arnow, Hazzan Pomerantz Boro, Helene Krupnick and Hedda Morton, for your enlightening and inspiring discussions each week, and Risa Wittman for coordinating the weekly minyan. Last, I want to give a special thank you to two Board Members who stepped down from the Sisterhood Board to take on other leadership roles in the community, Ann Miller and Sharon Sackstein. Sisterhood is grateful for all you have done over the years and we wish you good luck in your new endeavors.

On behalf of Sisterhood, I want to wish a very special thank you and goodbye to Rabbi Arnow and his family as they leave Beth El and move on to bigger and better things. Rabbi and Tammy have both contributed greatly to Sisterhood over the last few years and we will miss you. We wish you nothing but good things as you enter this new stage in your lives.

I am really looking forward to service as President for one more year. I have already met with my new Board to plan some awesome programs and events for next year. Please watch your mailbox over the summer for our Membership Packet which will include a tentative schedule for next year along with your dues envelope. I wish everyone a great summer and don't forget to send back your dues envelope when you receive it at the end of the summer. Sisterhood needs your support in order to continue to do all the great work it does.

B'Shalom,
Faye Shapiro, President

Rosh Hodesh; It's A Girl Thing! Informational Meeting for Girls Entering 6th Grade and their Moms

Tuesday, August 19
7:00 PM

at the home of
Dr. Gary and Faye Shapiro
1109 Crane Drive,
Cherry Hill NJ 08003

Thanks to the generosity of Congregation Beth El's Sisterhood, we are entering our 7th year of Rosh Hodesh: It's A Girl Thing!, a national award winning program for adolescent girls in 6th-12th Grade. It is a contemporary monthly celebration of the ancient New Moon (Rosh Hodesh) holiday that helps to build girls' self-esteem, leadership skills and Jewish identity in fun, intimate monthly gatherings, facilitated by a knowledgeable, fully-trained, dynamic Jewish woman.

The self contained program uses Jewish teachings and engaging activities to empower pre-adolescent and adolescent girls to navigate the life issues they care about most, including body image, stress, popularity, friendship, romantic relationships, and family. All issues which I know you will agree, are so important for our young women.

Our 6th and 7th Grade girls from last year will be continuing into their year Bet and Gimmel, respectively and our newest group of 6th Grade girls will be beginning their Year Aleph in the fall. See what Rosh Hodesh Girls are saying all over the country.

Beth El's Young Torah Readers

Beth El is proud of its Torah Readers. Do you know that last year more than eighty pre-Bar/Bat Mitzvah age children from Religious School and Kellman Brown Academy read Torah at Beth El's Junior Congregation and Main Sanctuary. Some of the children were as young as six or seven years old. That's a remarkable record.

Here are the names of our Torah Readers for 5774

COMMEMORATIVE OPPORTUNITIES

THE TREE OF LIFE

LEAF: Purchasing a leaf on Beth El's Tree of Life, which is located inside the Shabbat and Holiday entrance to our building, is the perfect way to commemorate a significant life-cycle event.

Remember your wedding, birthday, anniversary, or your children's B'nai Mitzvah or other accomplishment by having a leaf custom engraved for $216 (12 times Chai).

STONE: For a more significant addition to the Tree of Life, please consider the purchase of a stone to adorn the bottom of the artwork. Each stone is custom engraved onto an all natural surface and promises to be a source of great family pride for years to come. The cost for each stone is $500.

To order the leaf or stone, please phone the Beth El office.

Nichum Avelim Caring for Mourners

It has always been the practice of Congregation Beth El to reach out to our congregants who are experiencing the loss of a loved one. In an effort to meet the needs of our Beth El family, the Caring for Mourners Committee has come together to reenergize its efforts.

We have developed a comprehensive guide explaining the Jewish approach to mourning. This book will be available to any congregant who sustains a loss.

Beginning with the day of the funeral, the Caring for Mourners Committee will provide a wide range of services to our families including:

- Setting up a home for shivah
- Delivering the Beth El "shivah chairs" for mourners
- Organizing a morning and evening minyan in the mourner's home

As this is a wonderful mitzvah and a way to support your fellow congregants in their time of need, the committee welcomes volunteers. For more information on how to receive the booklet or to volunteer, please send us an email.
