PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Lauren Soll

EXCITING!!! This was springtime at Beth El. Yom Ha'Atzmaut Celebration with Bret Stephens, Clergy Dinner, Mitzvah Day and Family Fun Night were some of the major events that took place at Beth El.

As a congregation, we also participated in a very special and inspirational Shabbat service. On May 16th, our Hazzan and her family celebrated their son Joshua becoming a Bar Mitzvah in our beautiful Sanctuary. Every Shabbat, our Hazzan gives us 110% by leading services and making sure that every Bar/Bat Mitzvah child is prepared for their special day. With her love, warmth and compassion, Hazzan is constantly reassuring each and every child that they will do great and that everyone will be proud of them. Her mantra of "loud and proud" starts at the initial meeting she has with every child and continues for over ten months with constant reminders throughout the service on the Bar/Bat Mitzvah day. On this special Shabbat morning, it was about Hazzan, Josh and their family and it was our turn as congregants to give back the love and support that she has always given us. There were over 700 family and friends in attendance - What a tribute!! The service was beautiful and beyond meaningful with the participation of so many Rabbis and Hazzanim. When you add in Hazzan singing with her siblings and the participation of our own Beth El choir for the Mi Sheberach, there were very few dry eyes when I looked out from the bimah. That Shabbat morning was not just about prayer, reflection and Torah; it was also about love. THIS is what makes our Beth El family so special. We care and we are there for each other. Beth El is about love and warmth and it is infectious. THIS is one of the many reasons why families want to join our synagogue.

In April, I sent out a letter to the congregation indicating personnel changes that have already taken place and others that will be taking place over the next few months. The new faces you will be seeing at Beth El are people who have tremendous leadership skills, creativity and enthusiasm and we look forward to their joining our Beth El family. In the spirit of our synagogue, and of love and warmth, let's begin by welcoming our new personnel and making them feel part of the Beth El family. Take the time to introduce yourself when you are in the office or at services and get to know the new faces of Beth El.

Even though it is summertime, the Beth El staff and our volunteers continue to work on creative projects and programs to offer and inspire our congregants. Think about your role at Beth El and what you want to see or how to make your spiritual experience more meaningful. If you have an idea for a program or event, share it with us. We encourage input and value your opinion. Also, think about joining a committee at Beth El and getting more involved. I encourage you to take ownership of your beautiful synagogue and all we have to offer.

I hope everyone has a happy, healthy, safe and restful summer.

Casual Shabbat at Beth El

We invite you to Join us Shabbat Mornings thru August 29 for Casual Shabbat

Shed your suits, jackets and ties for a more casual attire. After services stay and enjoy a light Kiddush with friends.

Services begin at 9am, but Shul begins when YOU get there!!!

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Rabbi Aaron Krupnick Two Innovative Leaders

It's the middle of the summer, but I'm already looking forward with great anticipation to the fall and working with our new Beth El staff members, Rabbi Andy Green, our new Assistant Rabbi and Dina Eliezer, our new Early Childhood Director. On the following page you'll find messages from both of them, but let me take a moment to explain to you the reasons why I am so excited to welcome both.

With Rabbi Green, Beth El won the equivalent of the rabbinic draft lottery. The pool of graduates being ordained by the Conservative Movement is relatively small and the competition for the most talented candidates was intense. But, their weekend here with all of us at Beth El left Andy and Charlene Green with a warm feeling in their hearts for our shul and when decision time came, the Greens passed on all other offers and accepted ours. For a recent graduate, Rabbi Green brings a wealth of experience to Beth El. He interned for two years with a close friend of mine, Rabbi Felipe Goodman out in Las Vegas, who runs one of the most vibrant and dynamic congregations in the Movement. Rabbi Green did a lot of innovative family programming for them as well as working with their teens. In fact, when Rabbi Green came and taught in our Hebrew High during his try-out, he was our student's top pick as well. By the way, Charlene Green also has a great deal of experience working in shuls as a youth and community life director and is a wonderful resource for her husband and our congregation. The Greens are moving here from Los Angeles with their two-year old son, Archer and Rabbi Green's first day on the job is August 4, 2015.

When I learned that Dina Eliezer was planning on moving back to our area from Texas, I encouraged her to apply for the position of ECC Director. Dina is a "teacher's teacher" who already has a fine reputation in our community. She is a creative, "outside the box" thinker who just sees the world as one big classroom for learning. Moreover, I admire Dina for her nurturing kindness and care. I know she'll be great with our ECC parents and their little ones and of course with our teachers as well. The teachers who remember Dina from when she last worked in our community are especially excited to have her as their guide.

These are indeed exciting times for all of us here at Beth El and it was this sense of excitement and energy, the spirit of creativity and innovation that brought us these two fine Jewish leaders. I know it's going to be a great new year!

WELCOME TO OUR NEW ASSISTANT RABBI ANDY GREEN AND OUR NEW EARLY CHILDHOOD DIRECTOR DINA ELIEZER

A MESSAGE FROM ASSISTANT RABBI ANDY GREEN

Rabbi Andy Green Yesterday & Today

In second grade, at Kiddush after services Shabbat morning, I told my father that I wanted to be a lawyer. My father, an attorney himself, asked me why I wanted to be a lawyer. He did not anticipate my answer. I looked around the room and pointed, "Mr. Grossman is a lawyer; Mr. Broidy is a lawyer; Mr. Braun is a lawyer; Mr. Berman is a lawyer; Dad, you are a lawyer... I want to be part of a shul like this one when I grow up. Don't I have to be a lawyer?!"

Born and raised in Jewish Los Angeles, I was privileged with a Solomon Schechter day school education, with USY and Jewish summer camp, and with a loving and vibrant synagogue community. Nearly every week, my family hosted guests for a Shabbat meal and often, community members hosted us as guests. When we celebrated, our friends and community were there to add to our joy and when we mourned, our friends and community were there to offer comfort and support. As a child, I found that Judaism and synagogue community added meaning to my life.

My desire to share that experience and love of Judaism led me to volunteer with UCLA Hillel as an undergraduate and later, led me to pursue a career in the rabbinate. I applied to the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies to align my career with my passion – to build sacred community and share my love of Torah.

When my wife Charlene and I visited Beth El for our interview weekend in March, we immediately felt at home. Beth El is a shul like the one my parents still attend: a community that shares in times of joy and comforts in times of sorrow; a place to seek and find wisdom, inspiration, and friendship; a sacred space that empowers us and our families to give of ourselves and to thrive.

I am thrilled to be the incoming Assistant Rabbi at Congregation Beth El and grateful to the phenomenal staff, board members, rabbinic search committee and clergy team of Rabbi Krupnick and Hazzan Pomerantz-Boro, who give of themselves to make Beth El the kind of place where our young people will say: 'I want to be part of a shul like this one when I grow up.'

Our two-year-old son, Archer, along with Charlene and I are excited to begin our New Jersey adventures and learn all about snow.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR ECC DIRECTOR, DINA ELIEZER

Shalom,
Our sages teach us that....
*"Effort is its own reward.
We are here to do,
And through doing to learn;
And through learning to
And through knowing to experience wonder;
And through wonder to attain wisdom;
And through wisdom to find simplicity;
And through simplicity to give attention;
And through attention to see what needs to be done"*

I chose this opening for my first article for the Beth El News because it contains important aspects that are part of my philosophy on education and also on life.

And through doing to learn; is about experiential learning. At our ECC the word learning will be often swapped by the word experiencing. I hope, together with our fine team of educators to enable our children to grow as learners, discover, explore, be challenged, and problem solve through hands on experiences. I believe that exposing them to many choices helps them to achieve independence, self-confidence and a sense of responsibility.

Our sages also said: "All Beginnings are difficult"

Knowing Rabbi Krupnick and many of the staff at Beth El. Meeting members of the board, some parents, the fine teachers, Yearit and Belle, I am confident that THIS beginning will not be difficult. Actually, it is one that I am very much looking forward to.

One thing that is important to know about me is that my door is ALWAYS open and you are welcome to visit, ask questions and make suggestions. I believe that when it comes to the education of children, it has to be done in partnership with the parents.

I am looking forward to meeting y'all (as we say it here in the south) and together to experience wonder.

The ECC's teachers and staff join me in wishing you and your families a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Dina

LIFE AND LEGACY PROGRAM

Beth El was recently given the opportunity to participate in a charitable Endowment initiative under the auspices of the Jewish Community Foundation. The program is funded by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation in order to foster an awareness of the importance of Endowments to the future of any charitable or religious organization. The Grinspoon Foundation offered an unrestricted $5,000 grant, during each of the first two (2) years of the program, to any organization meeting certain criteria.

The Grinspoon Foundation challenged all of the participating organizations – and almost every Jewish organization in our area is participating - to obtain at least eighteen (18) Endowment commitments during each of the first two (2) years of the program. Our committee is pleased to advise you that Beth El was the first of the organizations involved to meet and surpass the Grinspoon Foundation challenge. We have already qualified for the first of the $5,000 grants in less than half way through the first year of the program.

Please remember Beth El when you do your Estate Planning. Our Committee will be happy to discuss various options with you. All of us thank those who have helped to ensure Beth El's future.

Come see what's new! Our shelves are stocked with new books, media (DVDs and books on CD). September 1 is our reopening after our summer hiatus...be sure to stop by soon and borrow these and other great titles:

Hoffman, Alice: The Marriage of Opposites. Historical fiction fans and art lovers won't want to miss this one. Hoffman, author of the widely acclaimed The Dovekeepers, brings us a brand new novel sure to please. This is the story of Rachel, who grows up on the island of St. Thomas in the early 1800s. A willful girl, she is married off to a widower with three children in an effort to bolster the family's financial situation. When her husband dies suddenly, his handsome, much younger nephew arrives from France, and a passionate affair begins. The scandal that ensues has repercussions on her family, including her favorite son – Camille Pissarro, the famed father of Impressionist art.

Landau, Adam. The Empire of the Senses. Landau's first novel follows one family through two wars. Lev Pearlmuter is an assimilated Jew living in Berlin with his German gentile wife. Initially wanting to shed himself of his Jewish identity, he enlists when World War I breaks out, and falls in love with Leah, a poor Jewish Russian peasant. After the War, Leah's nephew arrives in Berlin and falls in love with Lev's daughter, Vicki. Lev also has a son, Franz, who is finding it increasingly difficult to conceal his homosexuality. And, Lev's wife Josephine is engaged in more than just counseling with her therapist. This novel blends history and romance for an engrossing story with strong characters.

Pogrebin, Letty Cottin. Single Jewish Male Seeking Soul Mate. Assimilation is a theme in this timely novel by one of the founders of Ms. Magazine. Zach Levy is the son of Holocaust survivors. A successful New York attorney, Zach promised his dying mother that he would marry a Jewish woman. Zach's first wife is Jewish, and they have a daughter. When his wife leaves him, he begins the search for his next Jewish wife. An affair with a comically bizarre Jewish woman ensues, but when that fails, Zach again renews his search in earnest. Attending a community meeting, Zach meets Chloe, the beautiful – and black – host of a successful radio program. Zach and Chloe are drawn to each other, and Zach must confront his dilemma: marry Chloe, who is the woman he loves, or continue to honor his mother's dying wish. Pogrebin captures the zeitgeist of young, hip NY, and the novel is an easy read, but serious issues are presented.

Sam Asbell has very generously created and dedicated a collection of rare and antique Jewish books in our Library in memory of his beloved wife, Susan. The Susan Asbell Collection includes Biblical, philosophical, historical and other categories of content. Seeing and holding these books, some of which are hundreds of years old, is a tangible reminder of our precious Jewish legacy. Todah rabah to Sam for this very special memorial collection.

Library Hours:

Sunday 9:30 - 11:30
Tuesday 9:30 - 12:00 and 2:30 - 5:00
Wednesday 9:00 - 11:30

The Library's Short Story Discussion Group will reconvene on Thursday, October 22, 1:30 – 3:00 PM in the Conference Room. Still going strong after nearly three decades (!), this lively group discusses short stories of Jewish interest by authors both classic and contemporary. Please plan to join us for a stimulating conversation. For more information, please call the library (675-1166, ext. 503).

GREETERS / SUBSTITUTE GREETERS WANTED

SHORT HOURS • NO PAY • LOTS OF SATISFACTION TRAINING PROVIDED

Greeters welcome people & direct them to the sanctuary, coat room, etc., or offer assistance as needed. Greeters are at the entrance from 9:15am to 10:35am. At that time, they may join the congregation (if they wish).

A BE Board member is usually assigned for specific Shabbats, but we do need substitutes. For information email or phone Mort Kanovsky at Kanovsky@juno.com or 856.424.9372.

WORK THE GIFT SHOP

We need volunteers to work in Judaically Yours Gift Shop.

Please contact Linda Lazarow at: (856) 424-3893 or llazarow@msn.com

Donate to the Kippot Box

Spring clean your drawers of your unused, "collectable" Kippot. All Kippas are welcome regardless of a memorable name or date. Help Beth El fill the Kippot Box and find more drawer space at the same time. Thank you.

Thank You!

Thank you to the volunteers who answered the call for the May/June issue of the Beth El News.
