A Time to Remember

Dear Friends,

You hold in your hands a book of remembrance. It is a memorial to those who touched our lives in profound ways, and to those we did not know or had for only a short time. Memorialized in this beautiful and touching volume are those we call to mind during Yizkor, and whose souls we carry with us as we strive to live up to their hopes for us, their expectations of us. They no longer walk on this earth but their presence is very much alive. The legacies of their lives, the ways they positively affected those they loved and those who loved them, remain right here, each time we picture their faces, hear their voices, and affirm their presence in our hearts.

Yizkor is a prayer, a moment, a poem said on important holidays. It is also a dedication that resonates year-round as we declare that in memory of those who held us close we try to represent their highest values, concerns, and aspirations. We will live out in our lives what would make them proud, do that which we believe elevates their souls. We remember so that we can live fully, as we seek to build lives worthy of being remembered, and perhaps emulated, by others.

As Rabbi Krupnick has written in this space with words that resonate so deeply: “May the souls of all our loved ones lost, inspire us to lead good and worthy lives, as a lasting tribute to their memories.”

MAY THEIR MEMORY BE FOR A BLESSING

Yahrzeit, a day of reflection and remembrance honoring a deceased loved one, is observed on the anniversary of the day of death according to the Hebrew calendar. Encourage your children and grandchildren to join you at minyan. Beth El will send a reminder letter in advance of a loved one's yahrzeit.

Yahrzeit rituals include:

- kindling a memorial yahrzeit candle or electric yahrzeit light for twenty-four hours
- reciting the Mourner's Kaddish at synagogue services
- engaging in acts of loving-kindness and sacred giving (tzedakah)

DAILY MINYAN: A PEACEFUL OASIS OF PRAYER

Twice daily, we have the opportunity to strengthen our Beth El family by participating and sharing in the joy and responsibility of making a minyan (a prayer quorum of at least ten Jewish adults.) By attending the Daily Minyan, we share in a ritual that has endured for centuries and will endure for time to come.

Beth El's daily morning and evening minyan services are wonderful opportunities to take a meaningful moment out of your day, to connect with Gd and tradition, to reflect in spiritual contemplation, to bond with community, to reach out to grieving congregants, to welcome visitors, and to strengthen old friendships.

Each service provides regular opportunities to say prayers of individual healing (Mi Shebeirach) and prayers in memory of loved ones (Mourner's Kaddish).

Visit www.bethelsnj.org/service-schedule/ for service times.

We Remember Them

With each passing hour we come to realize how fragile this life truly is.
With each passing day we consider how blessed we really are.

We stand in awe of Gd's love that allows us to grow.
We wonder what we have done to deserve such graciousness.

But in the end our lives are indeed but a passing breath.
All that will remain is the shadow of where we once stood.

So we pray to you Dear Gd: Teach us to number our days.
Give us the wisdom to realize what truly matters most.

Help us to remember that integrity and honor are eternal;
Our decisions today will shape memories of us in the future.

Those whom we have loved, though now hidden from view,
Continue to guide our lives when our values mirror theirs.

When we have difficult decisions to make we call on them;
When we need love and support they are with us still.

For as long as we shall live, they will live, too.
They are forever a part of us as we remember them.

—RABBI AARON KRUPNICK

YIZKOR

יזכור

יהוה, מִה־אָדָם וַתִּדְעֵהוּ, בֶן־אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשִׁבֵהוּ.
אָדָם לַהֲבִיל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כָּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּבִקֵּר יִצִּיץ וְחִלָּף, לְעָרֵב יְמוּלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ.
תָּשֵׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד־דִּכָּא, וְהִאֲמֹר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי־אָדָם.
שׁוּבָה יְהוּה, עַד־מָתִי, וְהִנַּחֵם עַל עַבְדֶּיךָ.

There is a time for everything,
for all things under the sun:
A time to be born and a time to die,
a time to laugh and a time to cry;

*a time to dance and a time to mourn,
a time to seek and a time to lose,
a time to forget and a time to remember.*

This day in sacred convocation
we remember those who gave us life.

We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth, to those whose memory moves us this day.

*As we reflect upon them, we seek consolation,
and the strength and the insight born of faith.*

As a parent shows love to a child,
Adonai embraces all who are faithful.

*God knows how we are fashioned,
remembers that we are dust.*

Our days are as grass;
we flourish as a flower in the field.
The wind passes over it and it is gone,
and no one can recognize where it grew.

*But Adonai's compassion for those who are steadfast, God's tenderness to children's children,
remain, age after age, unchanging.*

Three score and ten our years may number,
four score years if granted the vigor.
Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes; it flies away.

*What are mortals, eternal God,
that You should be mindful of them?*

What are mortals, that You should take note of them,
that You have made them little less than angels?

*The sounds of infants attest to Your power;
the magnificence of life reflects Your glory.
The heavens display Your splendor.
What majesty is Yours throughout the world!*

Teach us to use all of our days,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.

*Bless us with Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.*

שׁוֹיִתִּי יְהוָה לְנִגְדֵי תְמִידָה, כִּי מִיָּמֵינִי בַל-אָמוּט.
לְכֵן שָׂמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי, אַף בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁפֵן לְבַטָּח.

I

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.
The dust returns to dust;
but the soul, which is God's, is immortal.

*Adonai has compassion for His creatures.
God has planted eternity within our soul,
granting us a share in His unending life.*

God redeems our life from the grave.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing,
as we lovingly remember, this day,
those who live on in our hearts.

— Jules Harlow

Our generations are bound to one another as children now remember their parents. Love is as strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory softens death's pain as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents, and our other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now recall left gaping holes in our lives. Even so, we are grateful for the gift of their lives, strengthened by the blessings they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us, as we remember them this day.

A personal meditation

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering. May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time; let me recall them, and love them, as they were. Shelter me with the gift of tears. Let me express my sense of loss — my sorrow, my pain, as well as my love, and words unspoken. Bless me with the gift of prayer. May I face You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed. Strengthen me with the gift of hope. May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead, to Your all-knowing compassion.

Each congregant continues with the appropriate passages among the following, in silent meditation. Personal meditations may also be added.

In memory of a father:

נְעִימוֹת בִּימִינָה נְצַח. אָמֵן.

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who no longer dwell on this earth. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

A meditation

Our Creator, the Eternal One, delights in life. Because of God's love for us, and because we are so few, each of us is a vital part of God's kingdom. Though we are only flesh and blood, we are irreplaceable. When one of the House of Israel dies, God's own grandeur is diminished. May the memory of all those we remember this day, in love, be an undying source of blessing to us, to our children, to all Israel, and to all humanity.

In memory of the six million:

אל מלא רחמים, שוכן במרומים, המצא מנוחה נכונה
תחת פנפי השכינה, במעלות קדושים וטהורים, כזהר
הרקיע מזהירים, לנשמות כל-אחינו בני ישראל שנטבחו בשואה, אנשים נשים וטף, שנחנקו וששרפו ושדדו, ו שמסרו את נפשם על קדוש השם, בגן עדן תהי מנוחתם.
אנא בעל הרחמים, הסתירם בסתר כנפיה לעולמים.
וצרור החיים את-נשמותיהם. יהוה הוא נחלתם.
וינחו בשלום על משכבותיהם. ונאמר אמן.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to the souls of our brethren who perished in the Shoah — men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered and suffocated and burned to ashes. May their memory endure, and inspire deeds of charity and goodness in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life.
May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

In memory of all the dead:

אל מלא רחמים, שוכן במרומים, המצא מנוחה נכונה
תחת פנפי השכינה, במעלות קדושים וטהורים, כזהר
הרקיע מזהירים, לנשמות כל-אלה שזהכרנו היום
לברכה, שהלכו לעולמם, בגן עדן תהי מנוחתם. אנא
בעל הרחמים הסתירם בסתר כנפיה לעולמים וצרור
בצרור החיים את-נשמותיהם. יהוה הוא נחלתם. וינחו
בשלום על משכבותיהם. ונאמר אמן.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your
sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to the souls of all our beloved who have gone to their eternal home.
Merciful One, we ask that our loved ones find perfect peace in Your tender embrace, their memory enduring as inspiration for commitment to their ideals and integrity in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

מְזֻמּוֹר לְדָוִד.

יְהוָה רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחָסֵר.

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנְאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי,

God gives me repose in green meadows,

עַל מֵי מְנַחֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי.

and guides me over calm waters.

נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב, יְנַחֲנֵי בְּמַעְגְלֵי־צְדָק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path
— for that is God's way.

גַּם כִּי אֵלֶּךָ בְּגִיא צַלְמוֹת
לֹא אִירָא רָע כִּי אִתָּה עִמָּדִי.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

שִׁבְטֶךָ וּמִשְׁעַנְתֶּךָ הִמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שִׁלְחֹן נֹגֵד צָרָרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes;

דִּשְׁנַתְּ בְּשֶׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסֵי רִוְיָהּ.

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

אֵף טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion
all the days of my life,

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבַיִת יְהוָה לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

and I shall dwell in the house of Adonai forever.

How do we face the reality of death?

We know that it is a fact. It is a part of life.

We may postpone it.

We may try to delay it as much as possible.

But some day we must be confronted by it.

How do we face the reality of death?

By giving thanks to God for the gift of life.

By voicing appreciation for the blessings we have known.

By being grateful for those lives that have touched ours and whose echoes still resound in us.

May the Kaddish, which we now recite, be not only a remembrance of those no longer with us,
but also a reminder of how we should live and the values that we should represent.

— Simcha Kling

And now, let us rise to join in prayer — for ourselves, and for all whose spirit now finds voice through us — that God and God’s sovereignty will forever be hallowed and enhanced, glorified and celebrated. May all of us who mourn and all of us who cherish loving memories on this day, open our hearts to God, our Ruler and Redeemer, our everpresent hope, our eternal source of comfort, as we recite the words of the Kaddish.

Yitbarakh v’yishtabah v’yitpa-ar v’yitromam v’yitnasei, v’yit-hadar v’yit’aleh v’yit-halal sh’mei d’kudsha, b’rikh hu l’ela min kol birkhata v’shirata, tushb’hata v’nehamata da’amiran b’alma, v’imru amen.

Y’hei shlama raba min sh’maya
v’hayim aleinu v’al kol Yisra-el, v’imru amen.

Oseh shalom bi-m’romav, hu ya’aseh shalom aleinu v’al kol Yisra-el, v’imru amen.

May God’s name be exalted and hallowed throughout the world that He created, as is God’s wish. May God’s sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God’s great name be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and worshiped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed may the Holy One be, praised beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes that mortals can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from heaven, with life’s goodness for us and for all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to His universe bring peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

THE YIZKOR RITUAL: RELIGIOUS REMEMBERING

Judaism asks us to remember our departed, not only in our hearts, but in our prayers, as well. In the Yizkor memorial prayer, we pledge to donate tzedakah in memory of our loved ones.

Congregation Beth El provides numerous opportunities through its charitable funds for you to help perpetuate the Jewish values your loved ones held dear.

To make a donation, contact the synagogue office.
